"We want our customers to feel confident when they purchase a gift card at Nordstrom," said Kevin Knight, Executive Vice President Credit Division. "Since its inception in 1999, we have been proud to stand behind a gift card that has no expiration date or fees of any kind."

Gift cards can be purchased for a minimum of $10 up to any amount under $1,000. Once purchased, customers can add value or may also choose to consolidate the value of several different cards onto a single gift card. They are easy to use and may be presented with cash or credit cards to complete a transaction. Once a customer completes a transaction with their gift card, it will immediately reflect the new balance. Gift cards over $1,000 may be purchased in person at the Customer Service department in any Nordstrom store. This season, Nordstrom also offers a special gift card with a holiday design.
