Nordstrom to Open Rack Store at Southcenter Square in Tukwila

January 2, 2007

SEATTLE, Jan. 2 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Nordstrom, Inc. announced today it will open a 35,000 square foot Nordstrom Rack store at Southcenter Square in fall 2007. The Nordstrom Rack is the company's off-price retail division offering a wide selection of quality brand name apparel, shoes and accessories for men, women and children at savings of 30-75% off original prices. The merchandise is transferred from Nordstrom Full-Line stores and Nordstrom.com, in addition to special purchase items. The location at Southcenter Square will be the sixth Nordstrom Rack store in Washington state.

"We're excited to add an additional Nordstrom Rack location for our customers who live in the greater Seattle area," said Scott Meden, president of Nordstrom Rack. "Customers have been responding well to our merchandise from Nordstrom Full-Line stores and website as well as our increased selection of special purchase product from today's hottest brands. We look forward to offering this merchandise at significant savings to our customers in a new location."

"Nordstrom Rack is a quality store and has the ability to attract more customers to Southcenter Square," said Mon Wig, co-owner and developer of Wig Properties along with Leshya Wig. "We look forward to their opening in the fall," added Leshya Wig. Southcenter Square is a 231,000 square foot center with over 925 parking spaces. Located on Southcenter Parkway in Tukwila, this center offers a convenient location within minutes of Southcenter Mall.
