SEATTLE, Aug. 18, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Seattle-based Nordstrom, Inc. announced plans to open a Nordstrom Rack at The Orchard Town Center in Westminster, Colorado. The approximately 25,000-square-foot store is scheduled to open in spring 2019.

The Orchard is a 1.1 million-square-foot open-air retail and entertainment district conveniently located off I-25 in the northern Denver metro area owned and managed by Phoenix-based Vestar. "We're thrilled to open a new Nordstrom Rack at The Orchard to better serve customers," said Karen McKibbin, president of Nordstrom Rack. "We want our stores to be as convenient as possible and we're eager to open our doors so that we can offer local customers another great location to shop with us."

The new location at The Orchard will be the seventh Nordstrom Rack in Colorado. Nordstrom also serves customers at three full-line stores in the state, including one nearby at Cherry Creek in Denver. The company opened six Nordstrom Rack stores last spring, and this fall will open 11 Nordstrom Rack stores and relocate one.

"We are very excited to bring Nordstrom Rack to The Orchard and add such a high-caliber fashion retailer to our mix," said David Malin, vice president of acquisitions and development for Vestar. "The addition of Nordstrom Rack demonstrates our commitment to the north Denver metro community in providing top-tier retail options, along with great dining and entertainment."
